CIRCULAR

In order to impress upon various Banks the need to engage only the Licensed Agencies for security of Bank Premises as also Cash-in-Transit as well as ATMs, a meeting was held under the Chairmanship of Pr. Secretary (Home), Government of NCT of Delhi on 07.01.2015. The meeting was attended by representatives of around 30 Banks and similar number of Private Security Agencies. During the meeting it was clarified that carrying on the business of Private Security Agency without obtaining a License under The Private Security Agencies (Regulation) Act, 2005 is a punishable offence. The Banks were requested to ensure that the Private Security Agencies hired by them are licensed from the Government of NCT of Delhi. The Private Security Agencies were also advised to ensure that Guards deployed by such Agencies are adequately trained as per the guidelines framed by the Government of NCT of Delhi.

All the Banks are once again requested to ensure that only Private Security Agencies duly licensed by the Government of NCT of Delhi are engaged. Similarly, Private Security Agencies are advised to strictly adhere to the provisions of The Private Security Agencies (Regulation) Act, 2005 and The Delhi Private Security Agencies (Regulation) Rules, 2009.
